Luxury tents planned at Lalitha Mahal

- Jaipur Palace model to revive fortunes of loss-making Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel
- Royal tents to come up at 54-acre land without harming the heritage structure

Bengaluru / Mysuru, July 9 (KMS & BCT)- The ambitious project to install luxury tents with star hotel facilities at the 54-acre open land available on Lalitha Mahal Hotel campus, which was floated by JD(S) MLA S.R. Mahesh when he was Tourism Minister in 2018, has been revived by present BJP Government.

Tourism Minister Anand Singh told reporters in Bengaluru yesterday that the present loss-making Lalitha Mahal Palace will turn into a profit-making hotel once the Jaipur Palace (Rajasthan) model tent houses and cottages with ultra-modern comforts and facilities will come up around Mysuru's royal hotel.

"We want to attract more visitors and increase revenue from the loss-making unit. Royal tents will come up on the 54-acre land and will not damage the heritage hotel structure in any way. A proposal is being prepared and bids will soon be invited through a global tender as decided by the Cabinet Sub-Committee," Anand Singh said.

Need for 100 rooms

There are 54 rooms in the hotel and if a luxury hotel chain has to take over the hotel —which is at present being run by State-owned Jungle Lodges and Resorts — it needs at least 100 rooms for bulk bookings. "There is no scope for reconstructing the building as it is a heritage structure. Luxury tents are the only alternative as being implemented at Jaipur Palace and at Oberoi Group of chain hotels in Madhya Pradesh," Singh said.

Mysuru, July 9 (RK&BNR)- Three from Mysuru, who were part of Amarnath Yatra, are stranded at Sonamarg near Srinagar in Kashmir and are seeking help to return home.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Srinath, a resident of Kuvempunagar in Mysuru, who is now staying at a hotel room in Sonamarg after Amarnath Yatra was suspended, said that he, along with his wife Rajeshwari and her friend Narmada, had left Mysuru last Tuesday (July 5) from Mysuru to Bengaluru and took flight to Kashmir. "After the Yatra was suspended following the tragedy, there are no flights and locals are not helping us out. We have no proper information about the flight operations and other facility to return home," said a worried Srinath adding that they are waiting for another group of 15 members from Bengaluru including his daughter, son-in-law and other family members and friends, who are walking down to Sonamarg.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Shinzo Abe — an outstanding leader of Japan, a towering global statesman, and a great champion of India-Japan friendship — is not among us anymore. Japan and the world have lost a great visionary. And, I have lost a dear friend. I first met him in 2007, during my visit to Japan as the Chief Minister of Gujarat. Right from that first meeting, our friendship went beyond the trappings of office and the shackles of official protocol. Our visit to Toji temple in Kyoto, our train journey on the Shinkansen, our visit to the Sabarmati Ashram in Ahmedabad, the Ganga Aarati in Kashi, the elaborate tea ceremony in Tokyo, the list of our memorable interactions is indeed long.

Every meeting with Abe San was intellectually stimulating. He was always full of new ideas and invaluable insights on governance, economy, culture, foreign policy, and various other subjects. Among his greatest gifts to us and his most enduring legacy, and one for which the world will always be indebted, is his foresight in recognising the changing tides and gathering storm of our time and his leadership in responding to it. Thanks to his initiatives, the Indo-Pacific region is more optimistic about its destiny and the world more confident about its future.

During my Japan visit in May this year, I had the opportunity to meet Abe San, who had just taken over as the Chair of the Japan-India Association. He was his usual self-energetic, captivating, charismatic and very witty. He had innovative ideas on how to further strengthen the India-Japan friendship. When I said goodbye to him that day, little did I imagine that it would be our final meeting. — Prime Minister Narendra Modi in The Times of India

Oldest to sail the Pacific

Tokyo: A Japanese adventurer has become the world's oldest person to sail solo non-stop across the Pacific Ocean at the age of 83.

Kenichi Horie, who holds multiple Guinness World Records including fastest solar-powered Pacific crossing and longest journey by pedal boat, departed from San Francisco on his sailboat, the Suntory Mermaid III, on March 27, and arrived June 4 in Japan's Cape Hinomisaki.

The adventurer first made headlines in 1962, when the then-23-year-old became the first person to sail solo nonstop across the Pacific Ocean, from Japan to California.

"I didn't think I'd be sailing at 83 but I'm still healthy and I didn't want to miss this chance," Horie said. "Challenges are exciting so I'd like to keep trying."

Incredible pancake art of father & son

Melbourne: Tiger Tomato, a father-son team from Melbourne in Australia, has been making waves online for their incredibly detailed and colorful pancake art.

The father-son duo, who prefer not to be named, started posting videos of themselves making elaborate pancakes back in 2015 and in the seven years since, they've built quite a following on social media. From popular cartoon characters like Frozen's Elsa, Sonic or Sponge Bob, to realistic human organs, there's virtually no limit to what Tiger Tomato can create.

Tiger Tomato starts the artistic process by choosing a design – mostly inspired by popular cartoons and pop icons – then proceed to use a needlepoint batter container to draw the outline of the design, before using colored batter to fill out certain parts and finally filling out the entire "drawing" with background batter. Then they cook the pancake and when it's flipped, an intricate edible artwork is revealed.

REALLY...?

- Rani Ki Vav, which translates into 'The Queen's Stepwell', is a lesser known but magnificent ancient architectural wonder in India. An intricately constructed stepwell, situated in the town of Patan in Gujarat, it was built as a memorial to the 11th-century AD king, Bhimdev I. It was declared as one of UNESCO's World Heritage Sites in 2014.
- Stepwells were commonplace, especially in Northern India, as subterranean water resources and storage systems. What sets Rani Ki Vav apart, is its architecture. Built in the complex Maru-Gurjara architectural style, with an inverted temple and seven levels of stairs, it holds a whopping 500 principal sculptures and an estimated thousand smaller ones. It is 64 metres long, 20 metres wide and 27 metres deep (about seven storeys into the ground), where it opens into the waters of the hallowed Saraswati River.

Chamundi Hill Ropeway Project shelved: A welcome move

Sir,

This refers to the news item titled "Chamundi Hill Ropeway Project shelved" in SOM dated July 7. While I welcome this move of the powers that be, I hope it will not resurface again but is cancelled, not just because of the environmental impact but because of financial impact too.

As a tax-payer, I am totally against this project as the respective governments have failed in many such projects taken up in Mysuru — Take for example the stone balustrades along the Raja Marga, the Subways near Bata Showroom on Sayyaji Rao Road and near Dasara Exhibition Grounds built with tax-payers money and now cries for their upkeep and maintenance. So why waste money on a ropeway when it is not needed? All these years millions of pilgrims and visitors have been using the Road (which by the way has no budget for its upkeep) and the steps to reach the hilltop. I have been up there several times with my family and friends who visit me in Mysuru over the years and it is an absolutely wonderful ride up (but please stop the youngsters from doing wheelies and acrobats on their two-wheelers).

The funds set aside for the Ropeway Project can be spent on the maintenance of hill roads.

I earnestly request our CM and District Minister to reduce the number of commercial stalls that is marring the beauty and architecture of Chamundeshwari Temple.

URINE INFECTION- HOW TO RECOGNIZE IT?
Urinary tract infections (UTIs) are often caused by the bacteria residing in the perineum. Its most commonly seen in sexually active women and elderly men. Women are more prone to UTIs as they have a shorter urethra, and bacteria can quickly move up into the urinary bladder. Most elderly men have enlarged prostate obstructing the urine flow; stagnated urine becomes a fertile medium for these bacteria to grow. People with poor immunity like diabetes, liver diseases, etc, use of vaginal contraception like the diaphragm, congenital abnormalities of the urinary tract, obstruction by kidney stones, change of sexual partners, unprotected sexual contact, a catheter placed in the bladder in hospitalized or paralyzed patients also increase the risk of UTIs. Most UTIs are restricted to the urethra (urethritis) and urinary bladder (cystitis), which lead to a burning sensation while passing urine, constant irritation in the genital area and passing urine very frequently. One may see turbidity in urine or even blood sometimes. Often patients experience chills and fever, but when it is accompanied by back pain, radiation of pain from back to groin, vomiting, reduction in urine output and swelling of feet and face suggest a more severe form of UTIs where the kidney/s are involved (acute pyelonephritis) and the infection may even spread to the blood (sepsis).

Millennium Circle in city turns a Sheep Fair

Mysuru, July 9 (GA&BCT)- With just a day left for the Bakrid festival, a variety of sheep have arrived from villages for a week and the busy Millennium Circle (LIC Circle) at Bannimantap has literally turned into a Sheep Fair.

Bakrid is a 'Festival of Sacrifice' honouring the willingness of Ibrahim to sacrifice his son as an act of obedience to God's command.

Sheep is being sold for the festival after two years of COVID where farmers and vendors faced heavy losses and this year, the market is good, fetching better prices.

Shepherds have arrived from far-off villages like Srirangapatna, Kirugavalu, Maddur, Bannur, T. Narasipur, Pandavapura, KRS, Mandya and Chamarajanagar with their livestock and brisk business is taking place today that will go on till midnight. However, the rain is playing a spoilsport.

Buyers said that the prices of sheep have shot up anywhere between Rs. 10,000 to Rs. 13,000 when compared to 2019. "A healthy sheep that was priced at Rs. 25,000 in 2019 is being sold for Rs. 35,000 now and some of the breeds cannot be afforded by the common man," a buyer said.

Known for its special taste owing to its fat content, the sale of Bandur breed sheep is brisk and there is high demand. Also, sheep from Kirugavalu are popular.

The sale of sheep is common before the Bakrid festival and the vendors have been demanding that the District Administration should provide space for the sellers to sell their livestock.

As the District Administration and the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) have failed to provide a suitable place for the sellers, they have been conducting business at the LIC Circle for many years.

The vendors crowd around the LIC Circle and at times cause traffic jams as there is a heavy rush of traders and buyers who spill onto the roads.

By the end of the day, the MCC Pourakarmikas arrive at the place to clean the surroundings.

Maid held for looting houses

Gold jewellery, silver articles and cash worth Rs. 11,94,000 recovered

Mysuru, July 9 (KS)- Alanahalli Police have arrested a domestic help on charges of looting houses and have recovered gold ornaments, silver articles and cash, all worth Rs. 11,94,000 from her.

The arrested domestic help is 42-year-old Prabhamani alias Mani of city.

Dr. Kumar had taken his wife to a physiotherapy centre on June 30 at about 7.15 pm and returned home at about 9 pm.

Hijacked car traced in DK

Mysuru, July 9 (GA&DM)- The car, which two miscreants had hired at Mysuru and later had hijacked it near Kestur in Mandya after stabbing the driver and dragging him out, has been traced at Belthangady in Dakshina Kannada (DK) district.

Details: Two persons, posing as customers, had hired a Toyota Etios car (KA-09-C-2358) to Tumakuru on the night of July 4 under the pretext of a medical emergency. As the car headed to Tumakuru dead in the night, the two asked the car driver 46-year-old Rudraswamy to stop near Kestur in Mandya district.

Soon as the car stopped, the two all of a sudden stabbed Rudraswamy and threw him out and sped away with the car.

Passersby, who noticed the injured Rudraswamy, shifted him to a nearby hospital. Later, the car owner and driver Rudraswamy's friends and others flashed messages in WhatsApp and other social media groups about the incident. As the news was flashed all across the State, the Taxi Owners Association had kept a watch on the movement of the Etios car.

On July 6, it happened that a car driver noticed the hijacked Etios car moving around Belthangady in DK district and followed it for some distance, before the car went out of sight. Soon the matter was informed to the local Police who acted swiftly and enforced Nakabandi to stop the car from escaping out of the town.

The miscreants, who are said to have somehow come to know of Police moves, left the car on a road in the town and fled away, it is learnt.

Belthangady Police have taken custody of the abandoned Etios car. Meanwhile, the stabbed Etios car driver Rudraswamy who is being treated at a Mysuru hospital, is said to be recovering.

End of the ROPE... for now or forever ?

The Mini Forest (Urban Forest) at Rose Garden near Cheluvamba Park in Mysuru. These saplings were planted as part of World Environmental Day-2019.

Whenever there is talk of development in Mysuru, the first target is Chamundi Hill. Now for the first time, our MLAs, MP and the District in-charge Minister have said no to the noose that threatened to hang Chamundi Hill's flora and fauna — the Ropeway Project.

After a long time, our leaders have collectively responded in a progressive manner to the environmental concerns of the citizens. They have refused to turn Chamundi Hill into one theme park.

It is appreciable of our local leaders who saw reason, unlike the former Tourism Minister R.V. Deshpande, who arrogantly said that he wanted to boost tourism and did not care for anyone who protested the Ropeway !

We wonder if R.V. Deshpande was not worried about questions such as, with landslides in Chamundi Hill, will the pylons holding the Ropeway stand? Where was the environmental feasibility study? Who would maintain the Ropeway? What are the safety issues? Can we afford specialised rescue teams? Will the huge generators be installed to ensure an uninterrupted power supply to keep the Ropeway moving and not pollute the Hill? Nothing, but he wanted to go ahead anyway. But there was divine intervention and he had to step down.

As Mysuru becomes more and more accessible to the world, with the soon-to-be-opened ten-lane expressway and a bigger airport, the city will attract more industries and immigrants. With that comes more homes, more loss of greenery, more air-conditioners producing more heat and more vehicles on the road, all of which will increase the city's temperature and decrease the quality of air and life. To offset this, we need green urban forests! Yes, we need forests in our city.

In 2020, on World Environment Day, June 5, the then Minister for Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Prakash Javadekar, launched the Nagar Van project. The scheme aimed to create urban forest cover in 200 cities across the country by 2025.

The Karnataka Forest Department has taken the initiative to develop Nagar Van (Urban Forest) at Navalur village in Dharwad, which is one among the three cities selected by the Central Government for the development of urban forest in the State. We wonder if Mysuru is included in the list.

Most cities have parks, but they are not enough to offset the onslaught of urbanisation, so we need thick forest-like areas within our city to offset the pollution. We need heavy urban forestry to moderate temperatures in cities caused due to the Urban Heat Island Effect where heat, radiated from concrete buildings and roads, makes the city warmer than the surrounding countryside.

Earlier this year, the Finance Minister said that by the time India turns 100, nearly half the population would be living in urban areas, making it imperative to nurture India's mega cities and facilitate tier-2 and tier-3 cities to gear up for the future. Mysuru is a tier-2 city that is undoubtedly gearing up and needs these forests now.

Bengaluru has been an example of what a city should not turn into, and Mysuru should learn from it. Bengaluru, known as the Garden City, has turned an urban forest like Turahalli in Southern Bengaluru into a garbage and debris dumping area. For some time now, the Environmental Support Group (ESG), a pan-India advocacy forum, has teamed up with the Karnataka Forest Department to reclaim Turahalli and turn it back into an urban forest.

Luckily Mysuru seems to have some forward-thinking officers. In 2021, the then Deputy Conservator of Forests (DCF) Dr. K.C. Prashanth Kumar told us that his Department already had a blueprint for increasing green cover and even had planned urban forests within the city.

This Urban Forest concept has already been implemented on a small scale behind Cheluvamba Park at Vontikoppal. In this location, more than 500 native plants have been planted, which will grow and become a forest in the next couple of years.

The Forest Department has also identified Lalithadrinagar, KSRTC Layout, Vijayanagar 4th Stage and J.P. Nagar as areas with the potential to nurture urban forests. Let's hope it comes to fruition, and only residents of these areas can push for urban forests in their respective regions.

Now, while successive Governments are pretty unpredictable in their plans for Chamundi Hill, what about Mysureans? Is there a danger of leaving Chamundi Hill at the mercy of just politicians and bureaucrats? Should Mysureans not have a say in our Hill?

Here we must appreciate Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda and other leaders, who wholeheartedly supported him when he proposed the formation of a Chamundi Hill Development Authority.

On June 26, a meeting was held to discuss preparations for this year's Ashada atop Chamundi Hill where MLA G.T. Devegowda placed a proposal for the creation of such an Authority. He said, "The aim is to enable all stakeholders to have a say in the Hill's future instead of only a section of powerful people taking unilateral decisions."

Surprisingly even the District-in-charge Minister S.T. Somashekar said he would bring the issue before the Cabinet or personally speak to the CM as the decision can be taken at a high-power meeting.

More importantly, Somashekar announced that a proposal to acquire 5 acres of land close to the foothills for housing would be examined as the village's population atop the Hill was expanding. He also assured that the families now staying atop the Hill would not be disturbed, but further construction of houses would be regulated. Let's hope he keeps his word.

Finally, our politicians are doing right by the Chamundi Hill and the deity Goddess Chamundeshwari. It was about time. Let's hope this Ropeway Project and other such "Disneyland" mindset has ended now and forever. Let's hope in the coming years, along with the inevitable urban sprawl, there will also inevitably be an urban forest sprawl.

Luxury tents planned

Anand Singh

These tents can come up without cutting trees or defacing the beauty of the heritage building. "Personally I felt that the Hotel can be handed over to the Taj Group considering their expertise in running the heritage hotels. But the Cabinet Sub-Committee decided to float global tenders instead of favouring just one hotel chain," Tourism Minister Anand Singh revealed.

Beam collapses

For quite some time, the State Government was mulling handing over the management of the hotel to a private luxury brand as it was not happy with the way the hotel is being run at present. The Jungle Lodges does not have the expertise to run a star hotel though it can run the luxury facilities inside the forests.

"When I visited the hotel sometime back, a portion of a wooden beam collapsed right in front of me and anyone in my place would have felt bad. We cannot take the risks here as the Lalitha Mahal Hotel is Mysuru's pride," he said.

It may be recalled here that in 2018 the then Tourism Minister S.R. Mahesh had proposed the idea of tent tourism in Lalitha Mahal. He had said then that tent tourism would be implemented on the lines of 'Rann Utsav' in Gujarat where a tent city is established in the heart of the Kutch district — The Rann of Kutch — during the festival. Officials were asked to prepare an action plan for the same.

'Tent tourism is attractive, cheaper'

S.R. Mahesh

Mysuru, July 9 (MTY&BCT)- Reacting to the State Government's proposal to revive the tent tourism project, former Tourism Minister and current K.R. Nagar MLA S.R. Mahesh told Star of Mysore that he fully endorsed the project.

"I had been to Europe and London on personal visits and I saw the tent houses there and I discussed the same in 2018 with Tourism officials Anil Kumar and Kumar Pushkar. I had come up with a detailed plan and asked the officials to work on it. Tent tourism is attractive and needs less investment. Moreover, we can shift the tents wherever we want to," he added.

"The area in front of Lalitha Mahal provides a beautiful view in the backdrop of the Palace and the Chamundi Hill and it will be a wonderful experience for the tourists with hundreds of illuminated tents. Campsites can come up on the vacant land without even cutting a single tree while ensuring adherence to quality, standards and safety norms," the former Minister added.

"It was my idea to hand over the Lalitha Mahal Hotel to Taj Group and I had mooted the idea of the 'Ambaari' double-decker bus that is popular now," he revealed.

3 Mysureans stranded

Stating that they had booked return flight for July 14, Srinath sought information from officials concerned as no proper communication was possible at the moment as phones were not working, internet not working and even hotels charging exorbitantly taking adavantage of the situation.

When SOM contacted Mysuru Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham, he clarified that "As they (Mysureans) are on a private visit and now in a safer place, they have to make their own arrangements. They can catch a cab to Srinagar and take flight from there. If people are struck at Amarnath Yatra, the concerned authority would definitely come to their rescue."

The cloudburst that occurred around 5.30 pm on Friday dumped copious rain and thick streams of sludge rolled down the mountain slopes into the valley. The gushing waters hit the base camp outside the shrine in South Kashmir, damaging 25 tents and three community kitchens where the pilgrims are served food.

City Sculptor Arun Yogiraj gets

2-acre land in Kadakola industrial area

Industries Minister Murugesh Nirani seen interacting with city Sculptor Arun Yogiraj recently.

Mysuru, July 9 (SBD&DM)- In recognition of his sculptural works, the Industries Department has sanctioned two acres of land in Kadakola Industrial Area to noted city-based Sculptor Arun Yogiraj.

Arun Yogiraj has sculpted the sculptures of great personalities such as Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar, Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa and Dr..B.R. Ambedkar.

More recently, he sculpted the statue of Sri Shankaracharya installed at Kedarnath, which caught the attention of Prime Minister Modi. Deeply impressed with Yogiraj's work, PM Modi has entrusted the responsibility of sculpting the statue of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, for installation near Delhi's India Gate.

Arun Yogiraj, who is currently working from a small space in front of his house located near Basaveshwara Circle where Chamaraja Double road meets New Sayyaji Rao road, is facing severe space crunch.

Finding it extremely difficult to carry out his sculpture works, Arun Yogiraj had applied to the Government a couple of years ago seeking land in an industrial estate. But as he did not get any response from the Industries Department, he brought the matter to the notice of Industries Minister Murugesh Nirani, who acted swiftly and ordered sanction of two acres of land in Kadakola industrial area.

Speaking to Star of Mysore in this regard, Arun Yogiraj said that he got national recognition after the sculpture of Sri Shankaracharya, which drew special attention of the Prime Minister.

"PM Modi was so impressed with my Sri Shankaracharya sculpture installed at Kedarnath, that he entrusted the responsibility of sculpting Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose statue to me. We have to adopt the latest technologies to bring out the best in our works and as such, more space is required for timely and perfect execution of orders," the sculptor said.

"Due to space crunch, I had applied for land in an Industrial Layout about three years ago. But I did not get any favourable response. I brought the matter to the notice of Industries Minister Murugesh Nirani when he came to my house during his visit to Mysuru a month ago. The Minister complimented my works and assured me of sanction of land, which has now been realised with the KIADB allotting 2 acres of land in Kadakola Industrial area along Nanjangud Road," he said adding that he got to know of land sanction just a couple of days ago.

Grand Dasara this year

First batch of elephants to arrive in August first week

Mysuru, July 9 (MTY&DM)- The world famous Dasara festivities, which was restricted to Mysore Palace premises for the past two years due to COVID-19 pandemic, will be held in a grand manner with all its past glory this year from Sept. 26 to Oct.5

The preparations for the grand Dasara will begin with the arrival of Dasara elephants from different camps to the city by the first week of August. As a first step, the Government has asked the Forest Department to select about 15 Dasara elephants. Also, it has been decided to bring the first batch of elephants, including Golden Howdah (Ambari) carrying elephant Abhimanyu between Aug.5 and 8. Abhimanyu, which is known as a combing specialist elephant, will be carrying the Golden Howdah for the third consecutive time.

Speaking to pressperons here on Thursday, DCF Dr. V. Karikalan said that the list of Dasara elephants will be finalised by July 30 and the selection process will be completed by July 20 with the examination of elephants' health and fitness.

Pointing out that the elephants will be selected from Thithimathi, Dubare, Rampura and other camps in Nagarahole Forest Range, he said that the list of selected elephants will be sent to the Government for approval, following which the elephants will be brought to Mysuru in August first week.

MYSURU DASARA
Celebrations Since 1610 AD
Sept. 26 - Oct. 5, 2022

Noting that the elephants will be brought to Mysuru at least 55 days ahead of Dasara procession date, Dr. Karikalan said that the elephants will be transported only after a thorough fitness and health check up and certification by Veterinary doctors and subsequent approval from the Dasara High Power Committee.

On the participation of Dasara jumbo Arjuna, the DCF said that Abhimanyu will be our hero this time too. Clarifying that Arjuna had carried the Golden Howdah six times in the past and he will be very much part of the Dasara elephants this year too, he said that along with Abhimanyu, three other elephants — Mahendra, Bheema and Dhananjaya — will be on standby for carrying the 750-kg howdah.

Studies should involve depth, dedication and discipline: DC

Mysuru, July 9 (MK&DM)- Maintaining that any studies or research should involve depth, dedication and discipline, Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham observed that knowledge earned through mere click of mouse will be short-lived.

He was speaking at the inauguration of Sri Ramakrishna Vidyashala Students Association and office-bearers' installation ceremony at Vidyashala premises in Yadavagiri on Thursday.

Reiterating that knowledge earned by click of mouse will remain short-lived, Dr. Gautham said that a detailed, in-depth and invasive approach is needed for long-term remembrance of what we study.

Stressing on the need for being positive about studies, he advised the students to keep away from TVs as far as possible.

Observing that students should stay away from unnecessary matters out of their mind, the DC said that such issues will only bring in negative thoughts on one hand and diminish their thinking capacity on the other.

Pointing out that Ramakrishna Vidyashala has an excellent library, he asked the students to develop reading habits as it will enhance their thinking.

Noting that Swami Vivekananda, who had great belief in spiritualism, had guided scores of students and others on leading a spiritual and spirited life, he called upon the students to imbibe humanism more than anything else.

Parth Nandan Shetia, a II PU student, was installed as the President of Students Association while Sourav, a tenth standard student as Vice-President, Shreyas, a tenth standard student as General Secretary, Srigiri V. Patil, a tenth standard student as Joint Secretary and several students as other office-bearers were also installed.

Mysuru Ramakrishna Ashram President Swami Muktidanandaji, Sri Ramakrishna Vidyashala's Yukteshanandaji, S. Balaji and others were present on the occasion.

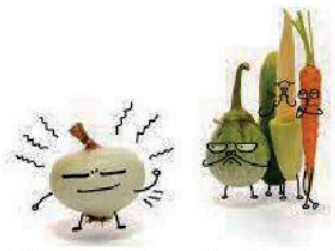
WORD OF THE DAY

Noisome



Pronunciation: NOY-sum.
Meaning: The word noisome describes what is very unpleasant or disgusting; especially disgusting smells.
Origin: Noisome looks and sounds like a close relation of noisy, but it's not. While noisy describes what is excessively loud, noisome typically describes what is excessively stinky. (It is also used to describe things offensive to the senses generally, as well as things that are highly obnoxious, objectionable, or simply harmful.) Noisome comes from the synonymous Middle English noysome, which combined the suffix -some, meaning "characterized by a specified thing," and the noun noy, meaning "annoyance." Noisy, incidentally, comes ultimately from Latin nausea, meaning "nausea."
Example: "In 1905, a 'garbage committee' led by a Mrs. J.G. McLean demanded a more subtle and sanitary L.A. trash management than the noisy and noisome practice of trash cans collected and then dropped with a clang on public sidewalks where, as The Times wrote appetizingly, they lay 'with reminiscences of the day before yesterday's dinner clinging to the sides, there to fester and fry in the fierce rays of the sun.'" — Patt Morrison

THE ODD WORD

Napifolious

Having leaves like a turnip.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Nest egg

Meaning: A sum of money saved for the future. You use the term 'Nest Egg' to indicate that something has been saved or set aside for later use.
Origin: The term 'nest egg' originated in the 14th century or perhaps earlier, when people began putting an egg into a hen's nest to induce her to lay more eggs. "Nest egg" has been used to refer to savings since the late 17th century. The term is believed to have been derived from poultry farmers' tactic of placing eggs—both real and fake—in hens' nests to induce them to lay more eggs, which meant more income for these farmers.
Example: "Grandma built up a nice nest egg before she retired."
